

Mr Underwood's Phonics Group (week beginning 29th June)

New spelling rule! - Homophones!

Homophones are words that have the same pronunciation but different spellings and/or meanings.

For example - night and knight

Firstly, can you think of any homophones of your own or any that we used last week?

- 1) Think about the words below. What does each word mean? Write the words meaning next to the word. You may need to use a dictionary/the internet to help you.

Homophone words	Meaning
night
knight
be bee
quiet
quite bare bear
sun
son

2) Now practice writing these spellings correctly using a spelling machine to help you.

Spellings	Copy - 1 st 	Cover - 2 nd 	Cover - 3 rd
night
knight
be bee
quiet
quite bare
bear
sun
son

3) Use the correct homophone spellings from above to try and complete the sentences below.

The library was very _____.

I went into the woods and I saw a large, brown _____.

The _____ was very bright so I needed to wear my sunglasses.

My _____ was stung yesterday by a _____.

The brave _____ saved the princess.

The pizza was _____ hot so I had to wait for it to cool down.

Last _____, I saw a shooting star.

A final challenge! Try using some of the words we have been learning about and create your own sentences. Try to include adjectives, adverbs and conjunctions into your sentences.
