

Mr Underwood's Phonics Group (week beginning 22nd June)

New spelling rule! - Homophones!

Homophones are words that have the same pronunciation but different spellings and/or meanings.

For example - see and sea

Firstly, can you think of any homophones of your own?

see

sea

- 1) Think about the words below. What does each word mean? Write the words meaning next to the word. You may need to use a dictionary/the internet to help you.

Homophone words	Meaning
see
sea
there their here
hear blue blew
too
two

2) Now practice writing these spellings correctly using a spelling machine to help you.

3) Use the correct homophone spellings from above to try and complete the sentences below.

I could not _____ the phone ringing.

I enjoyed sailing my boat on the _____.

You left your book over _____.

That is _____ football.

I painted my fence _____ and it looks lovely.

Please stay _____ unless I ask you to move.

It was _____ windy and the kite snapped in _____.

The dry leaves _____ around in the garden.

A final challenge! Try using some of the words we have been learning about and create your own sentences. Try to include adjectives, adverbs and conjunctions into your sentences.
